

An Organization for Women and Men, both Lay and Clergy, active in the Nation's Capital area since 1936

A 503(c) Non-Profit

Sponsor of Fellowship Square – Providing the elderly and disabled with housing, care, and opportunity

April 1, 2010

Dear Pastor:

The Lutheran Lay Fellowship of the Metropolitan Washington, DC, Area (LLF) is pleased to announce the availability of its annual scholarship which, for 2010, is $1,500.

Please apprise those whom you serve of this scholarship as there may be some among them who would be interested in this opportunity. The enclosures are offered as an aid to expedite the dissemination of this information by whatever means that are available to you.

Inquiries regarding this scholarship may be directed to the undersigned.

God keep you,

Daniel E Bella
Chair, Scholarship Committee
3205 Janet Rd
Silver Spring, Md 20906-4041
301/949-5317

Enclosure #1 – Announcement @ 8½" x 11"

Enclosure #2 – Announcement @ 5½" x 8½" (Sized for Sunday Worship Service Bulletin)

Enclosure #3 – Scholarship Program Brochure

LUTHERAN LAY FELLOWSHIP
OF THE
WASHINGTON, DC, METROPOLITAN AREA
Scholarship Committee
3205 Janet Road
Silver Spring, MD 20906-4041
301-949-5317

2010 SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

GENERAL — The Lutheran Lay Fellowship of the Washington, DC, Metropolitan Area (LLF) is pleased to announce the availability of its scholarship for 2010. A brochure presenting scholarship details may be obtained from Daniel E Bella, Chair, Scholarship Committee, using the contact information cited, above or from our website www.LutheranLayFellowship.org

AWARD — This year's scholarship award is $1,500. Consideration for the award will be weighted toward a needy, promising applicant planning to enter a career which would enable him/her to help those who are in need of spiritual and/or material assistance either at home or abroad.

ELIGIBILITY FOR THIS SCHOLARSHIP

- An applicant must be a member in good standing of a Lutheran congregation located in the Washington, DC, Metropolitan Area.
- An applicant must be accepted by or already attending, on a full-time basis, a Lutheran school (university, college, junior college, or seminary).
- No applicant will be granted an award for two consecutive years.
- No applicant will be granted more than two awards.

APPLICATION — The application process is informal; however, information required of an applicant is specified in the brochure.

APPLICATION DEADLINE — June 15, 2010

LUTHERAN LAY FELLOWSHIP
OF THE
WASHINGTON, DC, METROPOLITAN AREA
Scholarship Committee
3205 Janet Road
Silver Spring, MD 20906-4041
301-949-5317

2010 SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

GENERAL — The Lutheran Lay Fellowship of the Washington, DC, Metropolitan Area (LLF) is pleased to announce the availability of its scholarship for 2010. A brochure presenting scholarship details may be obtained from Daniel E Bella, Chair, Scholarship Committee, using the contact information cited, above or from our website www.LutheranLayFellowship.org

AWARD — This year's scholarship award is $1,500. Consideration for the award will be weighted toward a needy, promising applicant planning to enter a career which would enable him/her to help those who are in need of spiritual and/or material assistance either at home or abroad.

ELIGIBILITY FOR THIS SCHOLARSHIP

- An applicant must be a member in good standing of a Lutheran congregation located in the Washington, DC, Metropolitan Area.
- An applicant must be accepted by or already attending, on a full-time basis, a Lutheran school (university, college, junior college, or seminary).
- No applicant will be granted an award for two consecutive years.
- No applicant will be granted more than two awards.

APPLICATION — The application process is informal; however, information required of an applicant is specified in the brochure.

APPLICATION DEADLINE — June 15, 2010

LUTHERAN LAY FELLOWSHIP
OF THE
WASHINGTON, DC, METROPOLITAN AREA
Scholarship Committee
3205 Janet Road
Silver Spring, MD 20906-4041
301-949-5317

2010 SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

GENERAL — The Lutheran Lay Fellowship of the Washington, DC, Metropolitan Area (LLF) is pleased to announce the availability of its scholarship for 2010. A brochure presenting scholarship details may be obtained from Daniel E Bella, Chair, Scholarship Committee, using the contact information cited, above or from our website www.LutheranLayFellowship.org

AWARD — This year's scholarship award is $1,500. Consideration for the award will be weighted toward a needy, promising applicant planning to enter a career which would enable him/her to help those who are in need of spiritual and/or material assistance either at home or abroad.

ELIGIBILITY FOR THIS SCHOLARSHIP

- An applicant must be a member in good standing of a Lutheran congregation located in the Washington, DC, Metropolitan Area.
- An applicant must be accepted by or already attending, on a full-time basis, a Lutheran school (university, college, junior college, or seminary).
- No applicant will be granted an award for two consecutive years.
- No applicant will be granted more than two awards.

APPLICATION — The application process is informal; however, information required of an applicant is specified in the brochure.

APPLICATION DEADLINE — June 15, 2010

LLF'S SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Mission — One of the five objectives of the LLF is "to initiate and support worthy projects of a religious, charitable, and educational nature. 'I The promotion and encouragement of the pursuit of degree oriented education among Lutheran students is the purpose of the scholarship program.

Background — This program is an outgrowth of the Bly Scholarship Program and the Scherzer Scholarship Program both of which were administered by LLF's Scholarship Committee under the direction of LLF's Board of Directors. Collectively, the intention of the original programs was to direct scholarship assistance to needy, promising students entering careers which would enable them to help those with spiritual and material needs at home and abroad. This intention is continued in this program.

Basis of an Award — An award is based on an applicant satisfying the program's intention and application requirements.

Frequency — One scholarship award will be made, annually.

Amount — The amount available for the 2010 scholarship is $1,500.

Selection Process — The LLF Scholarship Committee's evaluations and selection will be based only on applications it receives on or before the June 15 deadline. The applicant selected to receive the scholarship award will be notified by July 15.

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION
(All information submitted is considered confidential and
(will be available only to the LLF Scholarship Committee.)

PART I – ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS (All 7 Items Must Be Answered)

1 - Name: _____ Date: _____

2 - Local Household Address: _____

3 - E-mail Address: _____ Phone Number: _____

4 - The name of the Washington Metropolitan area Lutheran Church of which the applicant is a member in good standing: _____

5 - Did the applicant receive an LLF scholarship award last year (yes/no)-
(only. applications with a "no" will be considered): _____

6 - How many LLF Scholarship Awards has the applicant ever received
(only applications with a "0" or a "1" will be considered): _____

7 - Is any member of the applicant's family a member of the LLF Scholarship Committee
(yes/no) (only applications with a "no" will be considered): _____

(continued on next page)

PART II – RANKING FACTORS

1. - Experience: to include participation in church and school activities, and, if employed, work accomplishments.
2. - List special skills and/or talents.
- 3 - A brief narrative (one page or less) stating personal goals including plans for applying education.
- 4 - Attach copies of recommendations (a minimum of one for each of the following: Church listed in Part I - Item 4, most recent school attended; and employer (if applicable).
- 5 - A list of awards/honors earned that are related to church, school, employment, and/or community activities.
- 6 - Attach college aptitude scores, such as SAT.
- 7 - Attach copies of academic records (transcripts).
- 8 - Attach a copy of the applicant's letter of acceptance from the school to be attended by the applicant for the coming school term.

Additional pages may be included as needed. All responses/attachments should indicate the Part II Item Number to which they apply.

Send the completed application with all added pages and attachments to: Daniel E Bella, Chair, LLF Scholarship Committee, 3205 Janet Road, Silver Spring, MD 20906-4041.

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM
LUTHERAN LAY FELLOWSHIP
of the
Washington, DC, Metropolitan Area
(LLF)